Christian Education at St. Barnabas

Christian Virtue: An Advent Talk-and-Discussion Series

Peter Scotchmer, a parishioner and retired English teacher and department head, is offering a series of one-hour talk-and-discussion lectures on several Christian Virtues as these make their presence felt in a number of significant literary works. These lectures will take place at 9:30 am each Sunday during Advent before the 10:30 am High Mass and will be scheduled as follows:

Dec. 1: Introduction to the series;

Dec. 8: Temperance: Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby;

Dec. 15: Diligence: Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress;

Dec. 22: Love: Shakespeare's King Lear.

The series is projected to continue in January if interest warrants. While it is helpful for participants to have read each work in advance, no prior knowledge of each is assumed. Interest is the sole requirement.

Cover Art

The Psalter World Map, c.1265. Despite its small size, this is one of the 'great' medieval world maps. It is probably a copy of the lost map which adorned King Henry III's bedchamber in Westminster Palace from the mid-1230's. Showing east at the top, it is a visual encyclopedia, embracing ancient history, politics, scripture and ethnography as well as geography. Christ, ruler of the universe is situated above, flanked by angels with thuribles.
