Collect

Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom. Renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Hosea 11:1-11

When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son. The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals, and offering incense to idols. Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them up in my arms; but they did not know that I healed them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love. I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them.

They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me. The sword rages in their cities, it consumes their oracle-priests, and devours because of their schemes. My people are bent on turning away from me. To the Most High they call, but he does not raise them up at all.

How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion grows warm and tender. I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and no mortal, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come in wrath.

They shall go after the Lord, who roars like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west. They shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria; and I will return them to their homes, says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107

Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is gracious, / and his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks whom the LORD hath redeemed, / and delivered from adversity;

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east and from the west, / from the north and from the south.

THEY that wandered in the wilderness, even in a desert place, / found no way to a city where men dwelt.

Hungry and thirsty, / their soul fainted in them.

So they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, / and he delivered them from their distress.

He led them forth by the right way, / that they might go to a city where men dwelt.

O that men would therefore praise the LORD for his goodness, / and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!

For he satisfieth the empty soul, / and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Whoso is wise will ponder these things; / and they shall understand the loving-kindness of the LORD.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-11

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things - anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth.

Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

407 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us

Mannheim

Gradual Proper

Come, ye children, and hearken unto me : I will teach you the fear of the Lord. V. Come unto me and be enlightened : and your faces shall not be ashamed. Alleluia. Alleluia. V. Thou, O God, art praised in Syon : and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem. Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the twelfth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, beginning at the thirteenth verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.” But he said to him, “Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?” And he said to them, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.”

Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’ Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, ‘Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’” But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.
