THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Opening Hymn

490 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds

St Peter

Introit Proper

Behold, O God, our defender, and look upon the face of thine Anointed : for one day in thy courts is better than a thousand. Ps. O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts : my soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. Glory be ... Behold, O God ...

Collect

Almighty God, you have created the heavens and the earth, and ourselves in your image. Teach us to discern your hand in all your works and to serve you with reverence and thanksgiving; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: "Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?" ("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?") "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.

Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 79

Deus, venerunt.

- O GOD, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; / thy holy temple have they defiled, and made Jerusalem a heap of stones.
- ² The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the air, / and the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.
- ³ Their blood have they shed like water on every side of Jerusalem; / and there was no man to bury them.
- ⁴ We are become an open shame to our neighbours, / a very scorn and derision unto them that are round about us.
- ⁵ LORD, how long wilt thou be angry? / shall thy jealousy burn like fire for ever?
- ⁶ Pour out thine indignation upon the nations that have not known thee, / and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy Name.
- ⁷ For they have devoured Jacob, / and laid waste his dwelling-place.
- ⁸ O remember not against us the offences of our forefathers, but have mercy upon us, and that soon; / for we are come to great misery.
- ⁹ HELP us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy Name; / O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins, for thy Name's sake.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 2:1-7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all - this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

61 Jesus came – the heavens adoring

St Thomas

Gradual Proper

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord : and to sing praises unto thy Name, O most Highest. ℟. To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning : and of thy truth in the night season. Alleluia. Alleluia. ℟. O give thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name : tell the people what things he hath done. Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 16:1-13

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the sixteenth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, beginning at the first verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Then Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.'

"Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light.

"And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."
