THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Isaiah 65:17-25

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.

They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labour in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord and their descendants as well. Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 98

Cantate Domino.

O SING unto the LORD a new song; / for he hath done marvellous things.

² With his own right hand, and with his holy arm, / hath he gotten himself the victory.

³ The LORD hath declared his salvation: / his righteousness hath he openly shown in the sight of the nations.

⁵ SHOW yourselves joyful unto the LORD, all ye lands: / sing, rejoice, and give thanks.

⁶ Praise the LORD upon the harp: / sing to the harp with a psalm of thanksgiving.

⁷ With trumpets also and the sound of the horn, / O show yourselves joyful before the LORD, the King.

⁸ LET the sea make a noise, and all that is therein; / the round world, and they that dwell therein.

⁹ Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the LORD; / for he is come to judge the earth.

¹⁰ With righteousness shall he judge the world, / and the peoples with equity.

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

Now we command you, beloved in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labour we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you.

This was not because we do not have that right but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

379 O God, our help in ages past

St Anne

Gradual Proper

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is : brethren, to dwell together in unity. ℣. It is like the precious ointment upon the head : that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard. Alleluia. Alleluia. ℣. He healeth those that are broken in heart : and bindeth up their wounds. Alleluia.

Gospel

Luke 21:5-19

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the twenty-first chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Luke, beginning at the fifth verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down." They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?" And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them. When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately."

Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.”

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Royal Anthem

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King:
God save the King.
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Prayers

We come before you this day, O Lord, in grateful remembrance of all those who have known the pain and hardship of war that we might know the joy of peace, for all who have suffered imprisonment that we might know freedom, for all who have died that we might live. Turn our gratitude into determination and into deeds, that as those whom we remember died for peace, we may live for peace, for the sake of the Prince of Peace, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, we commend to thy gracious care and keeping all the men and women of His Majesty's Canadian Forces at home and abroad. Defend
