THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:1-6

“At that time, declares the Lord, I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they shall be my people.” Thus says the Lord: “The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness; when Israel sought for rest, the Lord appeared to him from far away. I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore I have continued my faithfulness to you. Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin Israel! Again you shall adorn yourself with tambourines and shall go forth in the dance of the merry-makers. Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant and shall enjoy the fruit. For there shall be a day when watchmen will call in the hill country of Ephraim: ‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion, to the Lord our God.’”

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 118

Confitemini Domino.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is gracious: / because his mercy endureth for ever.

² Let Israel now confess that he is gracious, / and that his mercy endureth for ever.

¹⁴ The LORD is my strength and my song, / and is become my salvation.

¹⁵ THE voice of joy and health is in the dwellings of the righteous: / the right hand of the LORD bringeth mighty things to pass.

¹⁶ The right hand of the LORD is exalted: / the right hand of the LORD bringeth mighty things to pass.

¹⁷ I shall not die, but live, / and declare the works of the LORD.

¹⁸ The LORD hath chastened and corrected me; / but he hath not given me over unto death.

¹⁹ OPEN to me the gates of righteousness, / that I may go into them and give thanks unto the LORD.

²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD: / the righteous shall enter into it.

²¹ I will thank thee, for thou hast heard me, / and art become my salvation.

²² THE same stone which the builders refused / is become the head-stone in the corner.

²³ This is the LORD's doing, / and it is marvellous in our eyes.

²⁴ This is the day which the LORD hath made; / we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Second Reading

Acts 10:34-43

So Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and made him to appear, not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Gradual Hymn

133 Jesus Christ is risen to-day, Alleluia!

Easter Hymn

Gradual Proper

This is the day which the Lord hath made : we will be joyful and glad in it.
V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious : and his mercy endureth for ever. Alleluia. Alleluia. Christ our Passover : is sacrificed for us.

Sequence

V. Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth : Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous : The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal. Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring? "The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection : Bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you." Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

Gospel

John 20:1-18

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the twentieth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St John, beginning at the first verse.
Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb. Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. And stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples went back to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord" – and that he had said these things to her.
