Gloria p.3

Collect

Almighty God, you have built your Church on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone. Join us together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may become a holy temple, acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Job 1:1, 2:1-10

There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil. Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord. And the Lord said to Satan, "From where have you come?" Satan answered the Lord and said, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." And the Lord said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil? He still holds fast his integrity, although you incited me against him to destroy him without reason." Then Satan answered the Lord and said, "Skin for skin! All that a man has he will give for his life. But stretch out your hand and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face." And the Lord said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand; only spare his life."

So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord and struck Job with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. And he took a piece of broken pottery with which to scrape himself while he sat in the ashes.

Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die." But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. Shall we receive good from God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Psalm 26

Judica me, Domine.

Be thou my judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: / my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

<sup>2</sup> Examine me, O Lord, and prove me: / try me in heart and mind.

<sup>3</sup> For thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes; / and I have walked in thy truth.

<sup>4</sup> I have not sat with vain persons; / neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

<sup>5</sup> I hate the congregation of the wicked, / and I will not sit among the ungodly.

<sup>6</sup> I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord, / and so will I go to thine altar;

<sup>7</sup> That I may show the voice of thanksgiving, / and tell of all thy wondrous works.

<sup>8</sup> Lord, I love the habitation of thy house, / and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

<sup>9</sup> O take not away my soul with the sinners, / nor my life with the bloodthirsty;

<sup>11</sup> But as for me, I will walk innocently; / O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

<sup>12</sup> My foot standeth right: / I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

Second Reading

Hebrews 1:1-4, 2:5-12

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. It has been testified somewhere, "What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him? You made him for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honor, putting everything in subjection under his feet."

Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. But we see him who for a little while was made lower than the angels, namely Jesus, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, saying, "I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise."

Gradual Hymn

591 Thou art the Way; to thee alone

St Magnus

Gradual Proper

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight : O Lord, as the incense : ℟. And let the lifting up of my hands : be an evening sacrifice. Alleluia. Alleluia. ℟. They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Syon : he who dwelleth in Jerusalem may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. Alleluia.

Gospel

Mark 10:2-16

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the tenth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Mark, beginning at the second verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

And Pharisees came up and in order to test Jesus asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce and to send her away.” And Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ‘Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate.”

And in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. And he said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her, and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

And they were bringing children to him that he might touch them, and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.” And he that my ways were made so direct, that I might keep thy statutes.
