Gloria p.3

Collect

Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery, free us from the tyranny of sin and death, and by the leading of your Spirit bring us to our promised land; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Pew Bible, p.446

Then Job answered the Lord and said: "I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted. 'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know. 'Hear, and I will speak; I will question you, and you make it known to me.' I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job, when he had prayed for his friends. And the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and ate bread with him in his house. And they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him. And each of them gave him a piece of money and a ring of gold.

And the Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning. And he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first daughter Jemimah, and the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-happuch. And in all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters. And their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. And after this Job lived 140 years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations. And Job died, an old man, and full of days.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34

Benedicam Domino.

I will always give thanks unto the Lord; / his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

² My soul shall make her boast in the Lord; / the humble shall hear thereof and be glad.

³ O praise the Lord with me, / and let us magnify his Name together.

⁴ I sought the Lord, and he heard me; / yea, he delivered me out of all my fears.

⁵ O look unto him and be lightened; / and your faces shall not be ashamed.

⁶ This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him; / yea, and saved him out of all his troubles.

⁷ The angel of the Lord tarrieth round about them that fear him, / and delivereth them.

⁸ O taste and see how gracious the Lord is: / blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

Second Reading

Hebrews 7:23-28

Pew Bible, p.1004

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever.

Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Gradual Hymn

490 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds

St Peter

Gradual Proper

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is : brethren, to dwell together in unity. ℟. It is like the precious ointment upon the head : that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard. Alleluia. Alleluia. ℟. He healeth those that are broken in heart : and bindeth up their wounds. Alleluia.

Gospel

Mark 10:46-52

Pew Bible, p.847

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the tenth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Mark, beginning at the forty-sixth verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

And they came to Jericho. And as Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" And Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart. Get up; he is calling you." And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. And Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, let me recover my sight." And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.
