The Collect

Almighty God, whose people are knit together in one holy Church, the mystical Body of your Son, grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The First Reading: Revelation 7:9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying, "Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows."

Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34: Benedicam Domino.

V.3.

The Second Reading: 1 John 3: 1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

Orbiit

Gradual Proper

O fear the Lord, all ye Saints of his : for they that fear him lack nothing. ℣. But they that seek the Lord : shall want no manner of thing that is good. Alleluia, alleluia. ℣. The saints shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people : and their Lord shall reign for ever. Alleluia.

The Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

✠ The Holy Gospel is written in the fifth chapter of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St Matthew, beginning at the first verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Book Study Series beginning November 10
Tuesdays from 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Please Note: The Tuesday Advent Study advertised in Fall 2026 Laudamus, and previously scheduled to begin on Nov. 24th, will now be held in an expanded format after the 10:30 am Low Mass on November 10. This earlier date will enable parishioners who wish to do so not only to have more time to read or research literary works to be covered during the series, but also to provide an introduction to the subject as well as an overview of what to expect during the talks themselves. Between November 10 and December 1, the series will give parishioners a hiatus of 3 weeks in which to familiarize themselves with this revised schedule.

Material to be covered in the first talk on November 10 will consist of the following items:

- (i) an explanation of the series as a personal encounter with Christian Literature by the presenter, Peter Scotchmer;
- (ii) the function of Story as fundamental to human society, with its roots in myth and legend, and its application in everyday life today;
- (iii) stories in the Bible, with special attention to the Parables, with particular attention to lessons made explicit in the parables themselves but often implied in literature of merit;
- (iv) an introduction to the Three Theological Virtues of Faith, Hope, and Love (or Charity), all of which to be discussed and applied on December 1 (Faith), December 8 (Hope) and December 15 (Love);
- (v) a revised list of, and introduction to, poetry, short stories, plays, and novels of lasting significance, to be examined, with helpful reading suggestions.

Tuesday December 1 – Faith: defined and applied to the poetry of Christina Rossetti, Emily Dickinson, Matthew Arnold, John Betjeman, among others

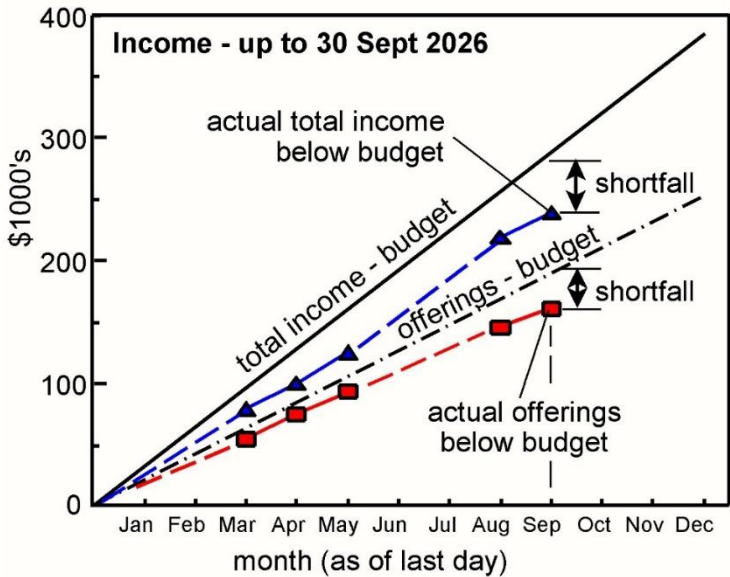

Tuesday December 8 – Hope: defined and applied primarily to works by John Donne, John Bunyan, O. Henry, and Charles Dickens

Tuesday Dec. 15 – Love: defined and applied primarily to a novel by George Eliot, and plays by William Shakespeare

Financial Update - as of 30 September 2026

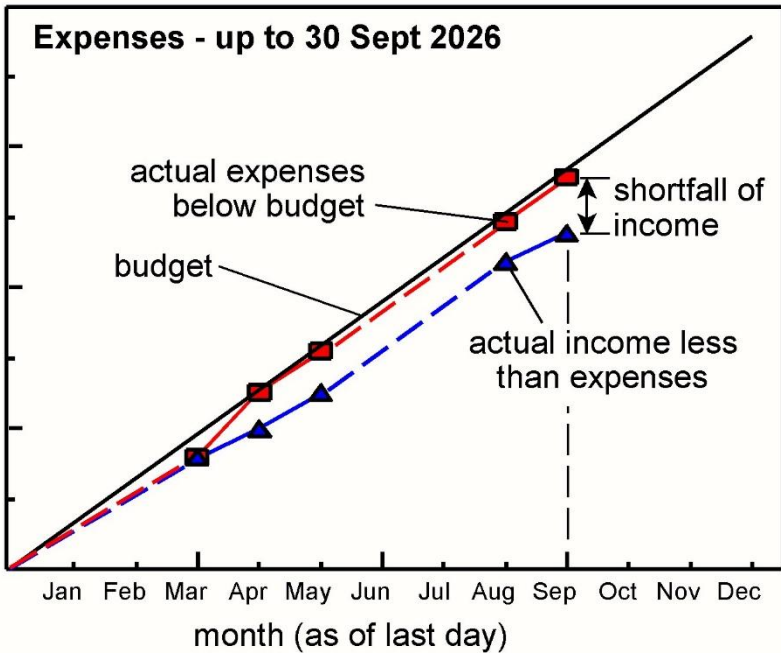

Summary: Although currently running with a deficit, we are forecasting additional income from several sources: the Bazaar in November, investments maturing in December, and the generosity of parishioners at Christmas. We expect that the added income from these sources, combined with the steady trends to date, will result in a significant reduction in the deficit by year's end.

The Details: The two graphs below summarize our financial position from month to month for the year so far. The numbers are for the operating budget - they do not include special projects such as the brickwork repairs or the floors. The points are numbers from the treasurer's reports presented to Parish Council.

Income:

- offerings continue to be short of budget by about $27 600, or roughly 15% of budget. This has been the trend all year.
- total income (offerings plus investments, rentals, and fund-raisers) was short by about $49 000 at the end of September.
- however, by the end of December we shall have received bazaar proceeds (est. $9000) and investment dividends (est. $30 000) which will reduce this shortfall

Expenses:

- expenses are under control, and continue to be slightly below budget by about $5000
- our total income is about $39 000 below expenses - a deficit

The additional income anticipated from investments and a successful bazaar balanced against the additional expenses will probably not be sufficient to balance our budget at year-end.

But our parishioners have traditionally been very generous at Christmas, and this will in all probability enable us to eliminate the deficit.

We thank you for your continuing generosity, both to your parish's regular operating fund as well as to our capital projects, in particular the floors!

A reminder: many regular donors use PAR (pre-authorized remittance) as a way to give every month to the Church. If you are not currently on PAR, additional information and sign-up forms are available in the narthex, or speak to the treasurer, Winnie Henderson. Winnie's email is: treasurer@stbarnabasottawa.com. She is also the contact if you are already on PAR and wish to increase your donations.
