

NOVEMBER

NEWS AND EVENTS

Advent Carol Service - Dec. 8th 7pm

The much loved tradition of the Advent service "From Darkness to Light" should be marked on your calendars. Through music, Scripture and darkness/light we prepare for the coming of Christ at Christmas. Why not invite a friend to join you this year

SUNG COMPLINE BY CANDLE LIGHT

Monday evenings at 8pm people gather in the Church to join in the ancient office of Compline. This short service ends the day with prayer and thanksgiving for the day and for the night that is coming. Why not consider joining us ?

Brian Wehrle and Fiona Laverty setup a booth at the University of Ottawa Church Crawl to welcome students to St. Barnabas in September.

The Church Crawl 2019

Each year the University chaplaincy invites churches to participate in the Church Crawl to introduce new students to the Churches in the local community. After a number of years of trying we were allowed to share in the event this year. Fiona Laverty and Brian Wehrle created an inviting booth and created an apostle pong game to engage the students stopping at the booth. By the end of the evening over 90 students came by to see what was up at St. B's.

Thank you to Fiona and Brian for their creativity and passion for

Christian Virtue : An Advent Talk and Discussion

Peter Scotchmer will offer a guided introduction on Christian virtues in literature. See Sunday Bulletin for more information

Bazaar 2019

Volunteers Needed

Our annual Bazaar is the main fund raiser for our Parish. Your help is needed to make it a success again this year. We need your help especially in the following areas:

- 1) Sorting and set up of the Attic Treasurers tables. Can you donate a few hours in the week leading up to the Bazaar ?
- 2) Donations of Jewelry
- 3) Food for the Snowflake Cafe
- 4) Preserves and baked goods

Thank you

CLERGY NEWS

Fr. Beall has been appointed interim Priest in charge of St. Matthews' Ottawa as of Dec. 1st.

Fr. Roger Young will continue to assist in the Parish of March/Kanata until Dec.31st.

Fr. David Raths has been licensed by the Bishop to function as a priest and he will once again be offering Mass and preaching on a regular basis.

Fr. Matthew Borden has recently moved to long term care at St. Patricks Home on Riverside Dr.

ALL SAINTS DAY PARTY

Everyone was invited to come dressed as their favourite saint. We even had the newest saint St. John Newman represented along with two St. Thomas Mores ! Thank you to Fiona and members of the Sitio group for another great evening.

*From Merbecke to Willan:
the Oxford Movement's Musical Heritage*

Organist and choirmaster Wesley Warren M Mus, FRCO will present a public lecture on the Anglo-Catholic contribution to the reform and revitalisation of Church Music in the 19th and 20th centuries. Materials will be provided.

The lecture will include such topics as Hymnody, Carols, Gregorian Chant/Plainsong, robed choirs and organs, liturgy and architecture.

*Saturday
16 November
10 - 12*

*St Barnabas
70 James
Ottawa*

All welcome

613.232.6992
WWW.STBARNABASOTTAWA.COM